DEDICATION

Economics and business law mixed with — “geetis,” “friends,” “almost but not quite,”
and “be that as it may” — challenging students, inspiring admiration, involving himself in campus life . . .
serve as a basis for the dedication of the

WINGATE COLLEGE

1970 . . .

The year was only one long noisy day
that never knew a quiet night.

Your grin
(once strong as my shoulder)
disappearing in so many crowded rooms each time I thought I'd found your face again
hardly helped at all.
I suppose it was a glad adventure
however quickly gone.

President

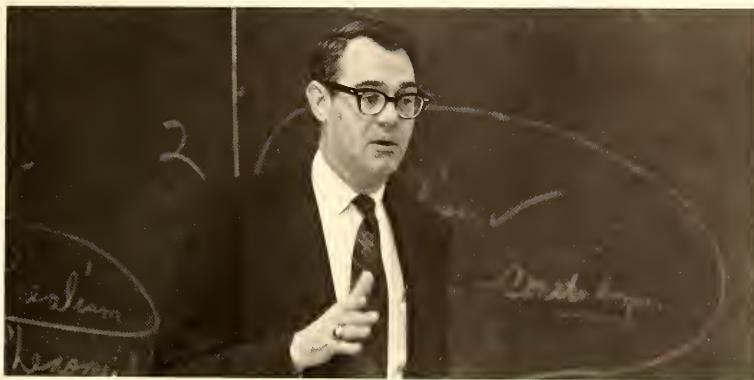

Dr. Budd E. Smith

Dr. Budd E. Smith believes that a college should expose the student to all areas of human experience and should clarify for him the ultimate values and philosophies by which men live; else, it has failed the student at a crucial point.

Dr. Smith gives to Wingate perception and perspective and, for alumni, faculty, and students, the immense challenge of active dedication to the highest purposes of education.

STUDENT BODY

SOPHOMORE CLASS

Through true interest and hard work, the sophomore class of 69-70 has contributed much to the value of Wingate College. The members of this class have striven to help Wingate and have succeeded in their quest for helpful changes in student government and other factors of campus life.

Many good times have been shared by all sophomores, and many have experienced the bitter taste of hardship and defeat. But through all of these, a feeling of unity as a class has existed. Now, as another phase of life is drawing to a close, hopes are that all sophomores will be able to make use of the experience and knowledge gained at Wingate, to go on and make the best lives possible for themselves.

IN MEMORIAM

LaVERNE DEWEY VICKERY, JR.
July 18, 1950 — October 27, 1969

*"... He has outsoared the shadow of our night;
Envy and calumny and hate and pain,
And that unrest which men miscall delight,
Can touch him not and torture not again;
From the contagion of the world's slow stain
He is secure, and now can never mourn ..."*

Percy Bysshe Shelley

FRESHMAN CLASS

Feeling strange, meeting new people, going new places, doing harder work, and meeting challenging demands have been characteristics of the freshman year at Wingate. Meeting all necessary demands has been the hardest job of a freshman. But the hectic life of the beginning of the year soon settled into a routine, and the freshmen eventually learned the ways of Wingate life.

Now, being quite familiar with the internal structure of Wingate, the freshmen have become a stronger unit and are now prepared for a coming sophomore year of leadership. We hope that they will meet with success and have patience with new freshmen. After all — everyone has to be a freshman sometime.

ORGANIZATIONS

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

The Wingate College SGA is the student administrative force of the college. Under the leadership of David Ward, better understanding and cooperation is attained among students and faculty members. The SGA tries to present student activities which meet the interest of the entire campus community. The organization consists of four executive officers and fourteen senators and is guided by faculty advice from Mr. Williams, Dean Haskins, and Mr. Sherwood.

David Ward, President.

Freshman Senators

Sophomore Senators

STUDENT GOVERNMENT OFFICERS

Kathy Gaston, President WGA; Zac Antonio, Vice-President; David Ward, President; Earl Reagin, Treasurer; Barbara Baird, Secretary.

Mr. Ralph C. Williams, Faculty Advisor

The SGA members wish to express their deepest appreciation to Mr. Ralph Williams for his help this year. Mr. Williams, this year, as in past years, has devoted much of his time and effort to assisting these students in attaining their many goals.

TRIANGLE STAFF

Wingate's own important and incidental news is brought forward and presented to students through the hard work of the Triangle staff. The students working on the staff diligently prepare the Triangle to be the medium between students and activities. It is evident that the Triangle has met with popularity and success.

Walter Woodson, Advisor; Jim Minor, Editor.

Phil Hines, Paul Dickerson, Bill Holder, Jo Ann Owens, Janice Head, Frank Wardlaw, Wesley Baker, Frank Adams, Ed Ford, and Brendon Curlee.

PRESIDENT'S FORUM

The President's Forum is composed of the presidents of various campus organizations. The members meet to informally discuss college affairs with Dr. Smith. This forum is the major means of communication between students and Dr. Smith.

OUTING CLUB

This organization promotes the enjoyment of conservation of the great out-of-doors. These students share the pleasures of exploring nature and outdoor life.

Duff Goforth, Steve Withrow, Lynn Laycock, Richard Amos, Joe Towe, Bill Hudson, John Hickman.

LITERARY CLUB

The Literary Club fosters a vigorous exchange of ideas among those interested in literature and the cultural world about them. Their main meeting activity is the discussion of the many aspects of American contemporary literature. The club members occasionally attend the performance of a play or movie that corresponds to a recent discussion topic. This club has given literature fans, both faculty and students, an opportunity to share their interests with others.

Bill Holder, Fred Benton, Oliver Moore, Sandy Collins, Sandy Greene, Phil Hines, Margaret Robinson.

CHESS CLUB

The Chess Club is both a recreational and competitive organization. Its members experience many tense and exciting moments during matches with other collegiate and civic teams.

Lynn Laycock, David Dry, Gains Beard, Ted James, Tim Moose, Tony Gobble.

COUNTERPOINT STAFF

Although a literary magazine is a comparatively new addition to Wingate, the staff of the Counterpoint has greatly succeeded in this endeavor. Due to good qualities and excellent organization, the Counterpoint has even gained financial support this year. All contributions made are the result of student writing.

Advisors: Mrs. Sylvia Little, Mrs. Louise Napier, Mr. Tom Teer.

WOMEN'S GOVERNMENT

Cannon Counselors

All women students, upon entering Wingate, become members of WGA. This organization promotes good standards and high ideals, which become the responsibilities of all women. Activities are sponsored to provide a better association among all women and to create a greater interest in campus life. Sophomore women in good standing are chosen to serve on the dormitory council, providing supervision over the women's dorms.

Barbara Baird, Kathy Frenck, Donna McCormick.

Belk Counselors

Doris Niven, Martha Mack, Sandra Lovette, Sue Smith.

Tucker Counselors

Summer Mann, Susan Dietz, Hilda Loflin.

GATE STAFF

Margaret Robinson and Parthenia Richardson, Features Editors

Mary Ripley and Sue Oberholtzer, Organization Editors

Sam Moore, Paul Dickerson, and Phil Hines, General Staff; Lee Galloway, Sports Editor.

Lynn Little and Nancy Brewer,
Freshman Class Editors

Paula Currin and Mr. Ralph C. Williams, Editor and Advisor

Brenda Moisoff, Typist; Ann Lowery, Sophomore Class Editor.

Members of the Gate Staff, chosen at the end of the 68-69 school year, have been hard at work trying to present to fellow students a true account of life at Wingate. In the pages of this annual, an attempt has been made to touch on every facet of campus life. Although there have been bad times along with the good, the staff sincerely hopes that there will be something for everyone; bringing memories of those good times we have all shared.

Sandy Collins and Yvonne Meggs, Associate Editors

Theta Nu is the Wingate chapter of the National Junior College Honorary Scholastic Society, Phi Theta Kappa. Gaining membership into this national fraternity is one of the highest honors a student may receive. Scholarship is not the only factor stressed by Phi Theta; character, leadership, and service are also considered important. To be eligible for membership, a student must rank in the top 5% of his class, with at least twelve academic hours, and he must be a constructive and responsible member of his class.

Basketball

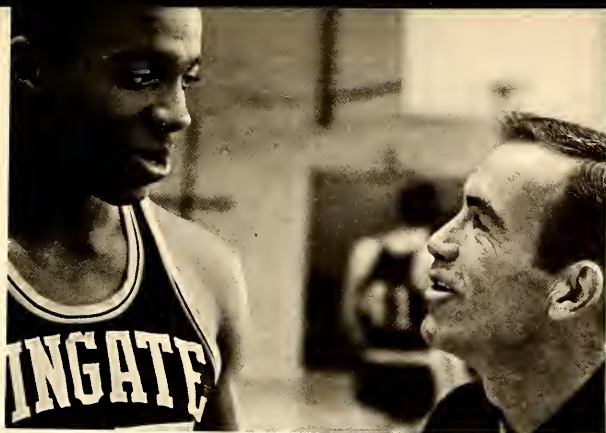

During the 1969-70 season, our Wingate Bulldogs have had a difficult schedule. The team has exhibited great determination and outstanding sportsmanship at all times. Coach Connell has done his best with only three veterans returning this year. There are many fine freshmen who show great promise for a fine season next year. The students are proud of the efforts displayed by these young men.

Soccer

Finishing its third season, the soccer team placed second in the conference this year. The team, under the superb coaching of Ronnie Smarr, worked its way to the top, being scored against in only two games. The entire student body is proud of these fine athletes, who won eight of ten matches.

Track and Cross Country

Having one of the best seasons in its history, the Wingate track team worked long and hard to achieve the heights which it has reached. Under the superior guidance and leadership of Coach Thomas Faulkenberry, the athletes displayed the stamina and skills necessary for both practice and actual competition. Thanks and admiration are extended to the team and its fine coach.

Tennis

Coach Ronnie Smarr

Not enough can be said about the achievements of the outstanding tennis team. Coming from various countries, but combining to form a solid unit, these young men placed third in the National Junior College finals. With one All-American and several more prospects, the team is in the midst of another tremendous season. Coach Smarr, an excellent recruiter and skillful teacher, is chiefly responsible for these men in whom we hold pride.

Deepal Wannakuwatte, Bill Lagattuta, Tony Pospisil, Peter Pospisil, Rick Slott, Audley Bell, Eddy Pribyl, Tom McCall, Jay Jorgensen, C. J. Travers.

Baseball

Returning to the diamond early in the winter, Coach Ron Christopher began his drive toward fielding a superb baseball team. Several extremely talented sophomore men, including our All-American, Jerry Tassa, are being assisted by a number of highly capable freshmen, to form what we consider a top-flight contending team. Wingate's respect and support will follow the team throughout its demanding schedule.

Being a returning sport at Wingate, wrestling has captured a great amount of support from the students and has brought forth much new talent. Coach Cross has directed these athletes in gaining numerous victories.

Coach Jerry Cross

Golf

Coach William Connell

Continuing to be one of the most successful teams of Wingate's athletic program, the golf team is beginning what appears to be another victorious season. With the excellent skills and knowledge of Coach Connell being instilled in the team, these young men destroy the hopes of victory held by their opponents. Having already won an important match in the fall, these athletes assure us of future success.

Intramurals

Including soccer, football, track, basketball, volleyball, ping pong, horseshoes, softball, bumper pool, and swimming, the Wingate Intramural program provides an opportunity for men to display their various abilities, techniques, and skills. This program, with the dedicated leadership of Jerry Cross, has become the leading recreational activity for Wingate students.

“THE WORD BEFORE GOOD-BYE”

*What is the springtime after all?
Only the other side of fall.
Oh, if I could have
I'd have made you a sunny sky.
Hello's the word before good-bye.
Sometimes it rains, sometimes it shines
yet the things I want are seldom mine.*

*Perhaps the next wind that blows in will bring you back to me again.
Till then remembering just makes me want to cry,

WHAT IS SPRINGTIME AFTER ALL . . .

ONLY THE OTHER SIDE OF FALL.

SOMETIMES IT RAINS . . .

SOMETIMES IT SHINES . . .

REMEMBERING . . .

JUST MAKES ME WANT TO CRY.

HELLO'S THE WORD BEFORE GOOD-BYE

[illegible]
